

Cannulation and Central Venous access devices (CVAD) workshops

12th February - Wednesday

16th April - Wednesday

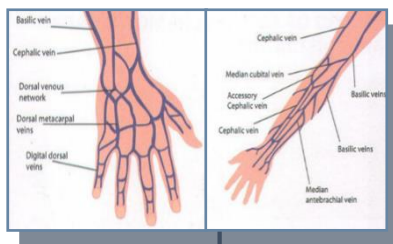

26th June - Thursday

17th September - Wednesday

5th November - Wednesday

PDU Training room, level 2, Bridgeman North.

Email to register, CNM approval required: pdu.admin@lakesdhb.govt.nz

Cannulation: 0900 - 1200

AIM: To be able to understand and practice how to safely cannulate a peripheral vein of a patient.

OVERVIEW:

- Anatomy and physiology of veins
- Choices of cannulas and reasons for use
- Practice on teaching mannikins
- Trouble shooting whilst cannula insitu

CVAD: 1300 - 1600

AIM: To learn how to safely maintain, use and trouble shoot a CVAD that your patient may have.

OVERVIEW:

- Anatomy of physiology of central venous system
- Discuss management of devices
- Trouble shooting strategies to avoid complications whilst caring for CVADs